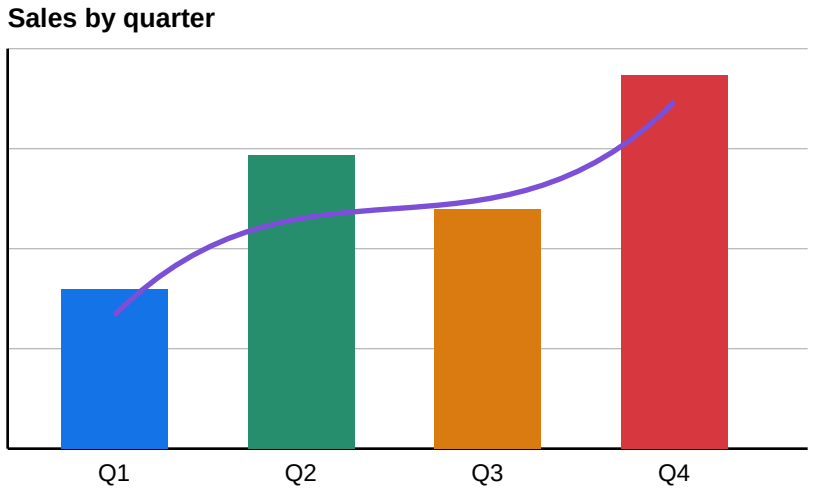
Field Report

The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey. The left column describes the survey.

The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail. The right column lists the results of the survey in detail.



Item	Count	Share
Apples	120	40%
Pears	90	30%
Plums	90	30%

Read the full terms at example.org/terms

This sentence is important for everyone.